

Climb aboard our historic narrow-gauge train for a fun ride through the dark forest of Ardenwood. The entire family will enjoy the spooky (not scary) roundtrip ride on the haunted rails of the ghost train.

October 20, 21, 22 & October 27, 28, 29

Trains depart every 30 minutes

Friday and Saturday: 7:00pm-9:30pm

Sundays: 7:00pm-9:00pm

Tickets: $7 ages 3 and up (2 and under free)

Save Time, Buy Online!*

(tickets also available at the gate on operating nights after 5:00 pm)

Especially for families with children under 12

All children must be with an adult—for safety reasons each child under 3 must be accompanied by a separate adult

*Tickets can be purchased in advance beginning at 8 am on October 1st at www.spcrr.org, click on "Haunted Train Tickets" (also at www.Eventbrite.com). Limited tickets can be purchased at the ticket window after 5:00 pm on any operating night (dates above). Cash and major credit cards accepted. Email questions to HauntedTrain@spcrr.org.

The train is run by The Railroad Museum at Ardenwood/SPCRR in association with East Bay Regional Park District. SPCRR is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation.

Ardenwood Historic Farm is located at 34600 Ardenwood Blvd, Fremont, CA (near the junction of Highway 84 and I-880). Call 510-544-2797 for more information. Free Parking!

Be sure to stop by Perry Farms Pumpkin Patch and get a great pumpkin